

Join Us On April 25 At Carlson Orchards in Harvard!

Dear John

Please consider joining us and bringing a friend to this great farm tour that we have planned for April 25, 2018. All young farmers are welcome to attend.

Additionally, we'd like you to keep in mind the majority of our events are family friendly! We know many farmers in our age group may have young families and we encourage folks to bring their future generations if they are comfortable. My 4 year old has been to a handful of tours/socials, including the tour at Bartlett's most recently.
